Based upon the information received from you and Dr. Jones and six months with Dr. Leven in New York. This unhappy individual, given to periodic deprivations, has had long periods of psychotherapy, and I think one can conclude without doubt that she has reached a state in which she continues to have little doubt. Although that she has had not satisfactorily, whatever the original cause, it is my opinion that she has had long periods of psychotherapy. It has left her in mental and physical disarray.

Let me summarize my conclusions about Miss Henry yesterday at the Horton Hospital in Louisville.

A LORD, A (TENNIS) QUEEN AND AN AMBASSADOR ARRIVE

AMBASSADOR BINGHAM AND HIS DAUGHTER
England, said our Ambassador to the Court of St. James's, is doing all it can to head off war in Ethiopia. Mr. Bingham arrived on the Majestic to spend a two-week vacation.

Lamont, Home, Calls Europe Jittery, but Not Militant

Arrives on Majestic — Mrs. Sternberger Takes Opposite View — Fears Conflict

Thomas W. Lamont returned from Europe aboard the liner Majestic today optimistic over affairs abroad. But Mrs. Estelle M. Sternberger, executive director of World Peaceways, another passenger, was much discouraged over the outlook.

AMBASSADOR BINGHAM

AMERICAN national tennis champion, was a Majestic passenger, back to defend her title at Forest Hills next month.
