Louisville, Ky. (October 1, 2009) – ArtWorks! is a new exhibition opening October 15 in the Main Library’s Bernheim Gallery. The exhibit showcases five Louisville artists that are part of a pioneering partnership of community agencies including Vocational Rehab, Community Employment, the Brain Injury Association of Kentucky, Venture Mentors, and Creative Diversity Studios. The groups came together in 2006 to start a new program that would aid artists with disabilities in becoming commercially viable. The five artists featured in this exhibit were the first to participate in the program and represent a wide range of media and experience.
